Compilation of this regional report was done by Mr. Gonzalo Oviedo from Ecuador and Dr. Teodora Zamudio from Argentina.

The IUCN Office for South America (IUCN SUR) provided substantial support for the research and preparation and translation of texts, as well as contacts with relevant regional institutions.

Significant support and contributions were also provided by (in alphabetical order): Catherine Lussier, Canadian anthropologist; Enrique A. Saglio, Argentinian researcher; Lourdes Barragan, anthropologist from Ecuador; Martha Escobar, anthropologist from Ecuador; and Viviana Figueroa, Argentinian-Omahuacan lawyer candidate, and other researchers of the School of Law of University of Buenos Aires.

Many indigenous and community organizations of all countries of the region provided information in good faith and with spirit of openness and collaboration. Among them (in alphabetical order):

ACOIN - Asociación de Comunidades Indígenas (Argentina)

ANIPA - Asociación Nacional Indígena Plural por la Autonomía (Mexico)

Asociación Aymará Taypi Ceqe (Bolivia),

Ayahuayco Aymara Community (Bolivia)

CEKORA - Centro Kolla (Argentina)

Charrua-Mocovi People Organization (Argentina)

COICA - Coordination of Indigenous Organizations of the Amazon Basin (Ecuador)

* UNEP/CBD/WG8J/3/1.

COPIRECHA - Coordination of the People and the Communities of the Great Chaco (Argentina – Bolivia – Paraguay)

Llutqui Council of the Tonocoté People (Argentina)
